

Investor Day

Highlights

- Consolidated funding structure, with a substantial reduction in debt and in interest expenses.
- Structural and administration costs have been reorganised; low fixed costs provide greater flexibility.
- Highly-skilled and specialised human resources.
- FCC growth potential underpinned by financial and operational strength.
- Optimism.
- Partnership with IFM in Aqualia, with prospects for growth and expansion.
- Real estate development on the rise.
- FCC Construcción expanding in the international market.
- FCC Construcción backlog stood at €4,673 million at the end of June 2018.
- The scale of the domestic cement market is driving exports by CPV.
- FCC Medio Ambiente division maintains organic growth with five waste-to-energy plants operational and another under construction in the UK.