

No. 9

Communication Network

News for the people of

THE PEOPLE

The Best Team in the European Football Championship

The countdown to the Euro 2012 kick off has begun. FCC, working through ALPINE, has built the National Stadium in Warsaw. The line-up for this major project featured Janusch Ewert, the technical manager of ALPINE Construction in Poland and boss of the Warsaw National Stadium project; Marcin Borecki, construction engineer; Konrad Kurta, manager for finishing work; and Ernest Kucharski, deputy manager for electrical work. More than 10,000 people worked with them for three years to breathe life into this project.

Dieter Meyer and His Singapore Squad

Meyer leads a team of 136 people of different nationalities on FCC's biggest project, the construction of one of Singapore's central lines, the Downtown Line, which will be used by two million people a day and is scheduled to be completed in 2017.

Daniel Almirón, Decorated for Saving a Young Man's Life

Castilla-La Mancha Televisión has given Daniel Almirón, an employee of FCC Industrial and a network division specialist in live-voltage work, its 2011 Anonymous Heroes Award in the Exemplary Neighbour category for his heroic action in saving the life of a young man on 1 October last, during a training session.

FCC Contributes to the Occupational Integration of People with Disabilities

FCC continues to engage in action and projects that contribute to occupational integration, the creation of jobs and training for people with disabilities, under its cooperation agreement with FSC Inserta, the ONCE Foundation agency for the employment and training of people with disabilities. The cooperation agreement was made with the encouragement of FCC's leading shareholder, Esther Koplowitz.

WELL-BEING

In My Job, Prevention Is Worth the Trouble. Better Safe than Sorry

Over the last few months, a number of colleagues from the FCC Group have participated in the filming of a video for the occupational risk prevention campaign. It's an international campaign, so some of the scenes included were filmed with A.S.A. personnel in the cities of Bratislava, Slovakia, Zistersdorf, Austria, and Znojmo, Czech Republic. Other scenes were filmed with people from SmVaK in Ostrava, Czech Republic, and some were shot with staff from WRG in the UK, at the Northampton offices, in Eastcroft, in Nottingham and in Market Harborough, Leicestershire. Also appearing in the video are colleagues from ALPINE in Vienna, Austria, in Dimitrovgrad, Serbia, and in Warsaw, Poland. Colleagues from FCC Construcción in the Warsaw office were in on the project, too.

RESPONSIBLE

Solidary Euro Campaign at Cementos Portland Valderrivas

Through the Solidary Euro initiative, the Cementos Portland Valderrivas Group has created a voluntary fund of donations that can be used for different social projects. This campaign is a solidary initiative in which employees at Cementos Portland Valderrivas donate one euro a month, and the company matches their donations.

OTHER NEWS

Juan José García Pérez receives an e-book for his contribution to the Citizen Conduct Manual.

FCC employees engage in solidary recycling.

The Steering Committee approves the FCC Equality and Diversity Policy.

FCC and PLAN roll out the "I Can't Vote, But I Have a Voice" programme.

Aqualia contact and Aqualia online are first to be certified for information security.

Full details at: <http://reddecomunicacion.fcc.es>

For more information, go to:

<http://reddecomunicacion.fcc.es>

To make suggestions for future issues of the magazine, write to reddecomunicacion@fcc.es