

No. 18/2013

Communication Network

News for the people of FCC
Citizen Services

PEOPLE

Domingo, Pedro, Tomás, Paco, Patricio, José, Andrés... examples for everyone

Domingo, Pedro, Tomás and Paco, together with their foreman, Alberto, care for Torres Park and Las Cornisas Park in Cartagena. They are all FCC employees, trained, experienced gardeners who set an example of capability. At the other end of the city, Patricio, José and Andrés work at La Rosa Park. They are all pleased by the opportunity given them by FCC.

PEOPLE

The men in charge of FCC Construcción's teams in Portugal

That's Pablo López Marzo on the right, technical and production manager on the Transmontana Dual Carriageway between Vila Real and Bragança, which is part of the Trans-European Transport Network. On the left is Joaquín Jiménez, construction manager on Ribeiradio Dam and Ermida Dam; the hydroelectric power project he's working on includes the construction of approaches to Ribeiradio Dam and the reconstruction of road EM-569.

THE PLACE

Driver Education Park in Alcobendas, Madrid: A place for learning

The Alcobendas City Council and FCC have signed an agreement to encourage action to help improve road safety. The Alcobendas Driver Education Park is the site of one activity under the agreement, where motorists are furnished with the practical means they need to gain knowledge and habits for good, safe driving.

RESPONSIBILITY

Strengthening Communities

FCC Environment is involved in a pilot project called "Strengthening Communities", a joint initiative with WREN to help local populations choose projects in disadvantaged communities that deserve funding. UK cities and towns benefit from 200 million euros in funding from taxes on FCC landfills.

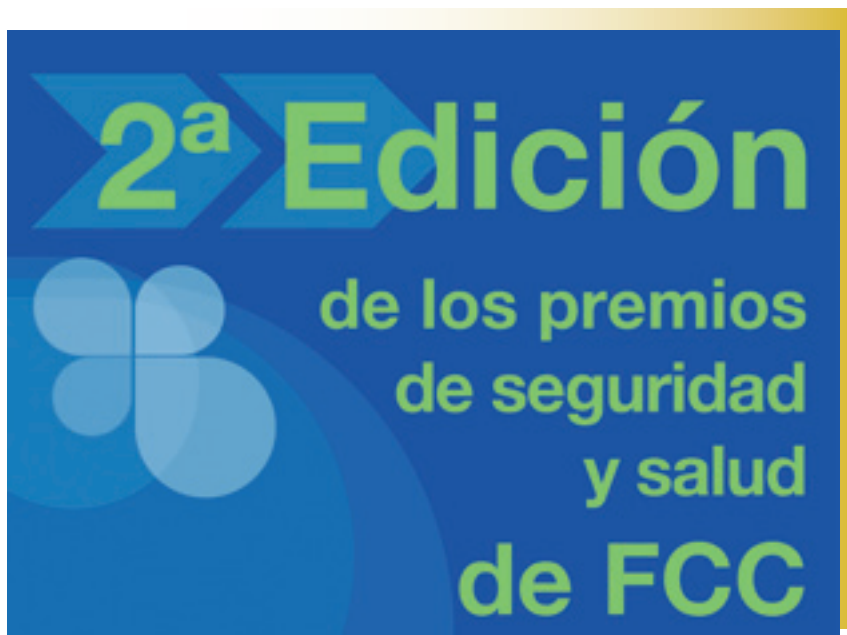

BUSINESS

.A.S.A.: 25 years growing

In November .A.S.A. will celebrate its 25th birthday and its career in the central and eastern European market. "This will be the anniversary of our growth and stability," says the company's financial manager, Björn Mittendorfer. .A.S.A.'s bottom line displays a trend of constant growth, and in 2012 the company reported the best numbers ever.

WELL-BEING

Winners of the Second Health and Safety Awards

The winners in the Preventive Management category are "Prevention of Muscular and Skeletal Injuries: Warm Up for Sports", an activity by the Canary Islands Environment Office, and the Wrexham system's demonstration of Excellent Health and Safety Culture, by FCC Environment (UK). In the Technological Innovation/R&D&I category the award went to FCC Environment (UK) for its Plant Mobile Lock Off System. Ángel Luis Sánchez Sánchez of FCC General Services, Paul Stokes of FCC Environment and Francisco Javier Suárez González of FCC Aqualia North Zone, Trainasa sewer system, Vigo, received Personal Career Mentions.

PEOPLE

Football at FCC Environment

The company has a lot of amateur footballers on its staff, so the players in the north zone of FCC Environment decided to challenge their co-workers in the south to a friendly match. The first game, which was played in Rotherham, ended in a tie of 3 to 3. In the second leg, however, which was played in Northampton, the southern team took home the victory, with 5 goals against 3, for a final score of 8 to 6.

OTHER NEWS

FCC is listed for the sixth year running on the European Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI).

FCC offsets the emissions from its 2013 Shareholders' Meeting through a UN project in China.

Antonio Piqueras, manager of the Açú Superport in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

FCC Environment encourages citizens to recycle their used cooking oil at any of the recycling centres in the county of Suffolk. For every litre turned in, a donation will be made to an NGO, the St John Ambulance.

.A.S.A. recycles tyres for horse-riding trails and other facilities at a stud farm in Napajedla, Czech Republic.

Full details at:
<http://reddecomunicacion.fcc.es>