

July-August 2011, No. 6

Communication Network

News for the people of FCC
Citizen Services

PEOPLE

FCC professionals built World Youth Day altar in Madrid

We would like to acknowledge the people responsible for building the giant stage on which Pope Benedict XVI held the Vigil on Saturday, 20 August, and the Mass on Sunday, 21 August: Leticia Ontillera García, Site Assistant; Francisco J. Pelluz Cuesta, Head of the Madrid Building III Unit; Manuel Martínez Nebreda, Department Head; José Page Racionero, Site Manager; Fernando Oreja Igartua, Head of Engineering; Beatriz Hernández Castanedo, Site Technician, and Miguel Ángel Lanchas Jiménez, Foreman.

Esther Koplowitz on the World Youth Day

"An explosion of spirituality and a message of solidarity to those who yearn for values, principles and ideals." Quoted in La Razón, 22 August 2011.

.A.S.A. holds its Family Day in Hungary

.A.S.A., FCC's Czech subsidiary, held a Family Day in Hungary to foster contact between the employees in its various businesses and regions, enable them to get to know each other, play football together, or just see their children playing with those of their co-workers. The idea was to spend a relaxing day together, getting to know colleagues you don't see during the working day.

FCC participated in Intercompany Games

FCC employees in Barcelona and Valencia participated in the Intercompany Games, competing in the paddle tennis event, with very satisfactory results. The team comprising Daniel Cano Alcaraz and Sergio Ivars Vallés took first prize, while Antonio Ortín Aldeguez and Vicente Crespo Escrich came second.

COMMUNITIES

Exemplary service by Aqualia staff in Elvas (Portugal)

The water supply in Elvas has improved considerably since Aqualia took charge of managing it, acknowledged Deputy Mayor Nuno Miguel Fernandes Mocinha in an interview. The people working at Aqualia provide an exemplary service that fulfils the expectations of the residents of Elvas.

THE PLACE

Sevilla Port Lock - a great team completes a mega-project

The project to build the new port lock in Sevilla was headed by Eloy Saiz San Pedro, who is now awaiting final acceptance of the project by the Port Authority. Five years of hard work, including some round-the-clock sessions, have made this colossal project a reality.

MANAGEMENT

WRG and citizens help Sue Ryder NGO

A new partnership between re3 and Sue Ryder has helped raise valuable funds for people in need of care, thanks to donations made by residents in the English cities of Bracknell Forest, Reading and Wokingham. re3 is a waste and resource partnership between those three cities and Waste Recycling Group (WRG).

OTHER NEWS

WRG and .A.S.A. exchange best practices.

Equality for all. Gijón (Spain) city government recognises FCC's commitment.

Aqualia hosts Spanish Swimming Championship for People with Intellectual Disability in Los Alcázares (Murcia).

WRG receives workplace safety award.

Aqualia participates in summer courses at King Juan Carlos University.

Full details at:
<http://reddecomunicacion.fcc.es>

For more information, go to: ➤

<http://reddecomunicacion.fcc.es>

To make suggestions for future issues of the magazine, write to reddecomunicacion@fcc.es