

REGULATORY DISCLOSURE

Madrid, January 11, 2013. In relation to the published information in the media during the last days regarding possible changes within FCC's Board of Directors, the company wishes to inform that conversations are taking place. Nevertheless, these possible changes have not yet been presented to the company's governing bodies for their consideration.