II.3.- Common provisions relating to the representation being granted by distance communication.

Any shareholder that grants their representation by distance communication must inform the designated representative of the granted representation; this party, in turn, must acknowledge his/her acceptance. If instructions have been issued by the represented shareholder, the representative will cast the vote according to them and will be required to comply with these instructions for a period of one year as of the time when the corresponding Meeting is held.

The delegation of authority may also include any items which, although not set out on the Agenda of the announcement, may be addressed at the Meeting, as permitted by Law.

The representative may only cast the vote of his/her principal by attending the General Meeting in person.

When the representation is granted to the Chairperson or any other member of the Board of Directors, including the Secretary, this communication will be deemed to be issued by receipt of the granted representation by the Company.

The representative may represent more than one shareholder without any limitation on the number of represented shareholders. III.- Common rules.

III.1.- Period of exercise for distance communication representation and voting.

Any representations granted and votes cast by distance communication, both by post and electronically, may be issued as of the date on which the announcement is published and must be received by the Company at its registered address or through its website at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the scheduled date for the General Meeting, i.e. before 4 p.m. on 27 June 2017.

Any representations and votes received after this time will be deemed not to have been granted or cast respectively.

After the indicated period, only representations which have been granted in writing by means of the attendance card will be admitted; they must be presented at the shareholder entry registration desk at the place and on the date on which the General Meeting is held.

III.2.- Priority rules about attendance, voting and representation by distance communication.

III.2.1. Priority of attendance in person.

The effect of attending the General Meeting in person will be to revoke the representation granted and the vote cast by distance communication

Representation status is always revocable. At any rate, the attendance of the principal at the Meeting will equate to the revocation of the granted representation.

III.2.2. Priority of remote voting over granting of distance representation.

Any vote cast by any means of distance communication will invalidate any representation granted electronically or by a printed card, even if it is done at an earlier stage, which will be deemed to be revoked, or at a later stage, which will be deemed not to have taken place.

III.2.3. Priority in the event of granting several representations or votes by distance communication.

If a shareholder validly grants several representations or validly casts several votes by different means of distance communication, the last representation and/or vote to be received will prevail and any that are received before will be invalidated.

III.3. Co-ownership

If any shares are co-owned, for the purpose of Article 126 LSC, it will be assumed that the co-owner that votes or grants the representation by distance communication is designated by the other co-owners to exercise the rights arising under the shares.

IV.- Technical incidents.

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the mechanisms by which representations or votes are electronically granted/cast whenever required to do so by technical security reasons.

The Company will not be liable for any damage or loss which may be incurred by the shareholder arising from faults, overloads, line drops, connection faults, ineffective postal service or any other eventuality of an equal or similar kind, beyond the control of the Company, which may prevent the use of distance communication voting and representation mechanisms.
