Attendance, proxy and voting rights

- Attendance:

As provided under article 18 of the Company Bylaws, the General Meeting may be attended by shareholders who hold at least one share, whose ownership appears in the corresponding entries of the share register at least five (5) days before the date of the Meeting, and can thus substantiate such ownership through the corresponding authentication certificate, attendance card issued by the Company, or any other manner admitted by the pertinent legislation currently in force.

- Proxy:

All shareholders with a right to attend may be represented at the General Meeting by a proxy holder, who need not necessarily be a shareholder. Representation through proxy must be granted in writing in accordance with the terms and conditions and within the scope established by the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, and be especially worded for the General Meeting, save the exceptions contemplated in the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act.

When the delegation form fails to indicate the specific person to whom the shareholder confers representation, it shall be construed as having been granted to the Chairman of the General Meeting.

- Voting:

Shareholders holding the right to attend may also vote by personally attending and voting at the Meeting with the attendance card duly signed and filled out.

- Voting and conferring proxies at the General Shareholders Meeting via a remote communication medium.

I.- Voting via a remote communication medium.

As provided for under articles 20 of the Bylaws and 22 of the General Meeting Regulations, shareholders may vote on motions concerning items on the Agenda by post, electronic mail or any other channel or medium enabling remote communication that can duly guarantee the identity of the shareholder, according to the following instructions:

I.1.- Voting by post.

Shareholders who opt to vote via post must send either the attendance card issued by the entities in charge of the share register or the attendance card form provided by the Company.

The card must be duly completed, signed and then sent to the Company through any of the following procedures:

- a) Delivery or dispatch to the registered business address (C/ Balmes 36, 08007 Barcelona) or at the office in Madrid (Av. del Camino de Santiago 40, 28050 Madrid). In either case, the letter must be sent to the attention of the "Departamento de Bolsa y Relaciones con Inversores" (Stock Exchange and Investor Relations Department).
- b) Delivery of the duly completed and signed card to an Iberclear member entity with which the shareholders have deposited their shares.

I. 2.- Voting by electronic communication.

Shareholders may also vote electronically from a page on the Company's website dedicated to the General Meeting in the section called "Accionistas e inversores" (Shareholders and Investors), where there are specified voting instructions appearing on each screen of the web page.

Electronically cast votes will be issued under a recognised or advanced electronic signature as contemplated in the Spanish Electronic Signature Act (Law 59/2003 of 19 December), so long as they are based on (i) the User's Electronic Certificate issued by CERES (Spain's Public Certification Authority), which is part of the Spanish National Mint, for which there is no record of revocation, or (ii) the recognised electronic certificate incorporated in the government-issued electronic identity card (eID) in accordance with Spanish Royal Decree 1553/2005 of 23 December, which regulates the issuing of Spanish national identity cards and their electronic signature certificates.

Shareholders who have an electronic signature meeting one of the indicated requirements and identify themselves therewith may cast their votes for the items on the Agenda at the General Meeting.

II.- Granting proxies through remote communication systems.

As provided for under articles 19 of the Bylaws and 11 of the General Meeting Regulations, shareholders may grant proxies for the General Meeting by post, electronic mail or any other channel or medium enabling remote communication that can duly guarantee the identity of the shareholder, according to the following instructions:

II.1.- Granting proxies by post.

Shareholders who opt to grant proxies by post must send either the attendance card issued by the entities in charge of the share register or the Company-provided attendance card form to the Company.

When granting proxies to the Chairman or any other member of the Board of Directors, including the Secretary, the card must be sent to the Company by any of the following procedures:

- a) Delivery or dispatch to the registered office (C/ Balmes 36, 08007 Barcelona) or at the office in Madrid (Av. del Camino de Santiago 40, 28050 Madrid). In either case, the letter must be sent to the attention of the "Departamento de Bolsa y Relaciones con Inversores" (Stock Exchange and Investor Relations Department).

- b) Delivery of the duly completed and signed card to an Iberclear member entity with which the shareholders have deposited their shares.

II.2.- Granting proxies through electronic communication.

Shareholders may also grant proxies electronically from a page on the Company's website dedicated to the General Meeting in the section called "Accionistas e inversores" (Shareholders and Investors), where there are specified voting instructions appearing on each screen of the web page.

Electronically granted proxies will be issued under a recognised or advanced electronic signature as contemplated in the Spanish Electronic Signature Act (Law 59/2003 of 19 December), so long as they are based on (i) the User's Electronic Certificate issued by CERES (Spain's Public Certification Authority), which is part of the Spanish National Mint, for which there is no record of revocation, or (ii) the recognised electronic certificate incorporated in the government-issued electronic identity card (eID) in accordance with Spanish Royal Decree 1553/2005 of 23 December, which regulates the issuing of Spanish national identity cards and their electronic signature certificates.

Shareholders who have an electronic signature meeting one of the indicated requirements and identify themselves therewith may grant proxies to a proxy holder from the website.

II.3.- Common provisions for granting proxies via a remote communication medium.

Shareholders who grant proxies via a remote communication channel must notify the designated proxy holder of the granted proxy, of which there must also be a record of acceptance. For this purpose, on the date and at the place of the General Meeting, the designated proxy holders must identify themselves through a government-issued ID or passport and submit a printed copy of the issued proxy made by post or electronic media duly signed by the proxy holder and the represented shareholder.

When the represented shareholder has given instructions, the proxy holder shall cast votes according thereto and will be required to keep a record of the instructions for one year following the date of the corresponding Meeting.

The delegation may also include items that, while not listed on the announced Agenda in the call, may nevertheless be addressed by the Meeting as provided for by law.

The proxy holder may only cast the represented shareholder's votes by personally attending the General Meeting.

When the proxy is granted to the Chairman or any other member of the Board of Directors, including the Secretary, this communication will be construed as made upon the Company's receipt of the granted proxy.

The proxy holder may represent more than one shareholder with no limit on the number of represented shareholders. Proxy holders representing several shareholders may cast votes differently for each represented shareholder according to the instructions received by each shareholder.

II.4.- Conflicts of interest.

For the purposes of the provisions of articles 523 and 526 of the Corporate Enterprises Act, we hereby inform that the Chairman of the Board of Directors, as well as any other member of the Board of Directors, may be in conflict of interest in relation to: (i) item 1.2 of the Agenda; (ii) item 4 of the Agenda, only in the case of the directors whose re-election is proposed; (iii) item 5 of the Agenda, only in the case of the directors whose exemption is proposed; (iv) item 7 of the Agenda regarding the remuneration of directors and (v) the assumptions set forth in sections b) or c) of article 526.1 of the Corporate Enterprises Act (dismissal, division or removal of directors and exercise of social action of responsibility) that could be presented outside the Agenda in accordance with the Law. In relation to all of them, if the represented party has not given precise voting instructions, the representation shall be deemed to have been conferred on the Secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting, unless expressly stated otherwise.

III.- Common rules.

III.1.- Deadline for proxy representation and voting via a remote medium.

The granted proxies and votes cast via a remote communication medium, whether through post or an electronic channel, may be issued upon the date of publication of the notice calling the meeting and must be received by the Company at its registered office or website within at least twenty-four (24) hours before the scheduled date of the General Meeting, i.e., before 16:00 on 1 June 2020.

Proxy representations and votes received after that date will be deemed to have never been granted or issued, respectively.

Once the indicated deadline has expired, only the proxies granted in writing through the attendance card presented at the shareholder registration desks at the entrance on the date and at the place of the General Meeting will be allowed.

III.2.- Priority rules regarding attendance, voting and representation via a remote communication medium.

III.2.1. In-person attendance priority.

In-person attendance at the General Meeting will be construed as revocation of the proxies granted and votes cast via a remote communication medium.

Proxy is always revocable. In any case, in-person attendance by the represented shareholder at the General Meeting will be deemed as a revocation of the granted proxy.

III.2.2. Remote voting priority over the granting of remote proxy.

The vote cast through any remote communication medium will render any proxy representation granted electronically or via a printed card, whether before, which will therefore be deemed to be revoked, or after, which will therefore be deemed never to have been given.

III.2.3. Priority for granting several proxies or votes via a remote communication medium.

When a shareholder validly grants several proxies or validly issues several votes through different remote communication media, the representation and/or vote received last will prevail, thus invalidating the ones received earlier.

III.3. Joint ownership

In case of joint ownership of shares, according to article 126 of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, the joint owner who votes or grants proxy representation through remote communication media shall be assumed to have been designated by the other joint owners to exercise the relevant rights corresponding to shareholders.

IV.- Technical incidents.

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the delegation or electronic voting mechanisms whenever required or needed for technical or security-related reasons.

The Company will not be responsible for any damage or injury that, as the case may be, the shareholder incurs because of breakdowns, faults, overloads, downed lines, connection errors, postal errors or any other situation of a similar nature out of the control or intentions of the Company that hampers the use of voting and delegation mechanisms through remote communication.

Electronic Shareholders' Forum

In accordance with article 539(2) of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, from the publication of this notice and up to twenty-four (24) hours before 1 June 2020 an Electronic Shareholders' Forum will be set up on the Company's web page which can be accessed by shareholders and voluntary associations incorporated and registered in the special register established for such purposes by the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores – CNMV). In order to use the forum, shareholders must observe the Rules of Operation for the Electronic Shareholders' Forum, which is posted on the Company website.

When entering the forum, shareholders must prove their status as shareholder as indicated on the website, and prove their identity as indicated in the present call to meeting.
